However, I welcome comments and suggestions to improve the book in future editions. Datta Page 6. Preface to the first edition of In Defense of Socrates. In defense of Socrates. "Crito, Crito, do not worry about the future, but do what you must do. But don't be like this (i.e., Socrates) Greek who kept saying, "I don't know anything." If you know something, don't say it; if you don't know anything, don't answer. Aspasia Page 7. "Life of Pericles". The Life of Pericles (ed. 1475) was the first part of a large History of Greece. It contains important and previously unpublished information about Pericles.
